Suspect in Four Armed Robberies Arrested

CONCORD – On June 7, 2017 after an intense investigation the Concord Police Department arrested a male believed to be responsible for four armed robberies that occurred in the City between May 28 and June 1, 2017. Arrested was:

JACOB M. BOUCHARD, AGE 23
CONCORD, NH

Bouchard was charged with:

ARMED ROBBERY x4 NH RSA 636:1 (FELONY "A")

Bail: Refused

Court: Merrimack County Superior Court 06/07/2017

Bouchard had been developed as a person of interest in the robberies. He was located by Concord Police patrol officers on the afternoon of June 2, 2017 and subsequently arrested on warrants for unrelated charges.

Once in police custody, detectives were able to focus on Bouchard and his involvement in the robberies. As the investigation accelerated, detectives were able to gather information and evidence connecting Bouchard directly to all four robberies.

An arrest warrant was issued on June 6, 2017. Bouchard had been incarcerated on the other charges when he was served with the robbery warrant.

The Concord Police continue to investigate the robberies and ask for the public's assistance in helping to identify person(s) who may have assisted Bouchard prior to, as well as after the robberies.

The Concord Police were assisted by troopers from the NH State Police. We thank the public for tips and information provided to law enforcement concerning this investigation.

Please contact Concord Police Lt. Sean Ford at 225-8600 or the Concord Regional Crimeline 226-3100 with any information pertaining to these incidents.
